Girls 6:30pm, Boys 9pm

Tom served on the player selection advisory committee from the inception of the McDonald's All-American Games in 1977. That inaugural game featured Magic Johnson in an event that would become the pinnacle of high school basketball competition.

Forty-five years later, the best and brightest players are still showcased in this annual East vs West format.

The boys' and girls' coaches will use the Playmaker Board bearing the Thomas C Konchalski Foundation logo.

We are working with ESPN to get the most favorable coverage.
