St Thomas More hosted exhibition to honor Tom

"We wanted to do something in Tom's memory," Coach Jere Quinn said "He never had a cell phone. Never had a computer. All he had was his word. And that meant everything." Continuing with "The Day" staff reports, Quinn said, "Tom is credited with helping countless young men attain their dreams of playing intercollegiate basketball. He was a great friend to STM athletics."

Double-header exhibition

In the opener, STM defeated NBA Academy - Africa In the nightcap, Putnam Science Academy bested NBA Academy - Global.

Tom loved his annual trip to the New England prep schools to scout the players and visit with the coaches.

Many thanks to Coach Jere Quinn and St Thomas More Academy as well as all the coaches and players for their support of the Tom Konchalski Foundation.

Rosary said for Tom

Recalling Tom's devotion to the rosary of Our Blessed Mother, we had a Zoom gathering on February 8, the second anniversary of Tom's passing.

Steve thanked Ursela and her children for leading the rosary and Greg who arranged Masses for Tom at Ascension that day as well as Queen of Martyrs on Ash Wednesday.

We said the Glorious Mysteries, reflecting and meditating on the Resurrection, the Ascension, the Decent of the Holy Spirit, The Assumption of Our Blessed Mother into Heaven and the Crowning of Our Blessed Mother as Queen of Heaven and Earth.

2023 John Bunn Lifetime Achievement Award

Please join colleagues, friends and many of the nation's leading coaches in celebrating Tom as the 2023 recipient. Other than enshrinement, this is the most prestigious award given by the HOF. It has been previously bestowed on other greats of the game, such as Arnold "Red" Auerbach, John Wooden, Morgan Wooten, Pat Summit and Dave Gavitt.
