5th Season Tip-Off: A Year of Growth, Community, and Basketball With Gratitude

Dear Tom's Team,
It's hard to believe we are beginning the fifth season since the passing of my brother, Tom. As you know, basketball was his work and vocation - and his faith was his compass.

Once again, I'm writing to ask for your support of the Tom Konchalski Foundation. I remain deeply grateful and humbled by what we've accomplished together so far. Through the generosity of donors like Mike Krzyzewski, Bob Hurley, Bobby Cremins, P.J. Carlesimo, Tobin Anderson, Danny Hurley, Pete Gillen, Ed Hall, Hubie Brown, Bill Raftery, Mike Breen, Billy Donovan, and so many others (including you), we've been able to recognize and celebrate Tom's extraordinary life and carry on his mission.

The Foundation preserves Tom's legacy by helping young people not just as athletes, but as individuals. We've supported a scholarship in Tom's name at his alma mater, Archbishop Molloy High School, provided grants for kids to attend summer basketball camps, organized life-skills and values-based clinics throughout New York City, and hosted educational forums on topics like college recruiting and integrity in athletics.

We've come a long way, but we've only just begun.

For those who have supported us before — thank you. Your generosity has made it possible to bring Tom's kindness and values to hundreds of young people. I hope you will consider renewing your support this year to keep that legacy alive.

And if you haven't yet made a gift to the Foundation, I ask that you please consider joining us. We are a registered 501(c)(3) charitable organization (Tax ID #87-2148255), and your contribution directly supports our ongoing programs and scholarships.

Tom was both the College Basketball Hall of Fame and the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, but those tributes, as meaningful as they are, only tell part of the story. The true measure of Tom's legacy is found in the lives of the young people who continue to learn, grow, and give back because of his example.

Thank you for keeping Tom's spirit alive through your friendship and support. Please feel free to contact me if I can provide more information about our work or how to get involved.

With gratitude and best wishes to you and your family this Holiday Season,

Steve Konchalski President, Tom Konchalski Foundation
